About Moonshot CVE

Moonshot is a London-based social enterprise specialising in countering online harms, including disinformation and misinformation, violent extremism, and other public safety issues. Our work ranges from software development and digital capacity-building to leading global counter-messaging campaigns.

About the role

We are seeking a subject matter expert to provide Moonshot with expert advice on the online disinformation environment in Indonesia. The consultant must be fluent in English and in Bahasa Indonesia.

The role will include the following responsibilities:

- Identify key disinformation narratives circulating online in Indonesia;
- Identify main online platforms and sources of disinformation in Indonesia;
- Review and update Moonshot's database of search terms referring to disinformation narratives circulating online in Indonesia;
- Translate search terms from English to Bahasa Indonesia and from Bahasa Indonesia to English whenever required.

Requirements

- Proven knowledge of the online disinformation environment in Indonesia;
- Experience in open source research on search engines and social media platforms;
- Fluency in Bahasa Indonesia and English;
- Strong organisational skills, detail oriented, and ability to work to tight deadlines.
